

PictureHouse

A thousand years of evolution

Release: February 23rd 2015

Album: The Definitive Karmarama

ISRC: ie-hpv-98-00008

Barcode: 5055781588952 (album)

Catalogue No: PHRC151

Label: PHRC

Genre: Pop

Contact: Craig Kingma

Ph: 07818 070572 / 0035385 8234994

E: craig@picturehouse.ie

Reviews

"PictureHouse are back with a blazing fire in their bellies and a superb new album that will have fans and critics struggling to find superlatives" - Sunday World

"Harmonies aplenty and irresistible melody" - Hotpress

"Loaded with songs that the likes of Neil Finn would proudly call his own" - Irish Times

"Positive, uplifting, life-affirming messages burst through." - Zuibestow

"Impressive" - The Irish Daily Star

Touring

January 31st - Dubai, McGettigans

February 13th – Galway, Monroes

February 26th - London, Surya

February 28th - Glasgow, Oran Mor

March 8th - Dublin, Unitarian Church

About PictureHouse:

PictureHouse have announced plans to perform a limited number of shows playing their 1998 gold album "Karmarama" in it's entirety.

Released in 1998 "Karmarama" featured hit singles like "All the time in the world", "love in the streets", "Only a friend" and the monster summer smash single "Sunburst" which went on to become the most played Irish record in 1998 and 1999.

The album's success and popularity ensure that PictureHouse became a household name and the band played sold out shows in The Olympia, The Point Depot, The Opera House in Cork, and headlined the big FM104 days out in Marlay Park to over 30,000 people. The accolades kept coming; Elton John bought 50 copies for his family and friends, The Corrs invited them onto their stadium tour and ended up having to start each show 10 minutes later when the queue to by PictureHouse CD's had subsided and fans went back to their seats.

Recently united after a 10 year hiatus, PictureHouse returned with new album "Evolution" which saw the band score another radio hit with "rules of science".

"15 years later we still see people at shows or on the streets telling us how these songs were a special part of their lives and their youth. We really can't wait to play these songs again, even the ones that were never played live before!"

To celebrate the occasion, the band will be re-releasing the album including some bonus tracks from around that time on the UK label PHRC-UK on February 23rd

Lyrics

He wants her, She leads him on and on
He just can't escape
a thousand years of evolution, Build at once into confusion
He watches Her walking home again
He just can't pretend
Tries to look in other places, As she bends to tie her laces

They see everything from everywhere
Could be anyone of anywhere
The world sees her everywhere
The shape god gave her
Never saved her from

White collar, He wants her every time she opens her mind
Comes to him for consultation
Secret midnight visitation
He wants her, She's showing off again
The show's just for him
He promises of god's forgiveness, Gives himself unfinished business

She led a beautiful life Such a beautiful life
A beautiful crime She knows now
She found out every man
Is one and the same
"For these things they never train us
Beautiful's the same as famous"